West Highland Way, 4th: British Walking Guide: Planning, Places To Stay, Places To Eat; Includes 53 Large-scale Walking Maps (British Walking Guide ... William: Planning, Places To Stay, Places)

Synopsis

Fully revised 4th edition of the first of Trailblazer's 11-title series of British Walking Guides. The West Highland Way is the most popular long-distance path in the country, passing through some of the most spectacular scenery in all of Britain. From the outskirts of Glasgow it winds for 95 miles along the wooded banks of Loch Lomond, across the wilderness of Rannoch Moor, over the mountains above Glencoe to a dramatic finish at the foot of Ben Nevis – Britain's highest mountain. It includes 5 town plans and 48 large-scale walking maps; at just under 1:20,000; showing route times, places to stay, places to eat, points of interest and much more. These are not general-purpose maps but fully-edited maps drawn by walkers for walkers. It includes itineraries for all walkers; whether walking the route in its entirety over a week to 10 days or sampling the highlights on day walks and short breaks. Practical information for all budgets; camping, bunkhouses, hostels, B&Bs, pubs and hotels; Glasgow through to Fort William; where to stay, where to eat, what to see, plus detailed street plans. Comprehensive public transport information; for all access points on the West Highland Way. Climb Ben Nevis; route descriptions to the top of Britain's highest mountain and other peaks. Flora and fauna; four page full color flower guide, plus an illustrated section on local wildlife. Green hiking; understanding the local environment and minimizing our impact on it. Includes GPS waypoints. These are also downloadable from the Trailblazer website.

Customer Reviews

‘If I wrote travel guides I’d like to think that they would turn out like this one. It fits in a coat pocket, weighs 8oz, and although it had some rough use there was no sign of it falling apart.’
John Clarke (UK) - a reader reviewing the book on .com
‘The Trailblazer series stands head, shoulders, waist and ankles above the rest. They are particularly strong on mapping.’
The Sunday Times (UK)

Ben Nevis guide: climb Britain’s highest peak. Now include GPS waypoints. These are also downloadable from the Trailblazer website

This was a wonderful guidebook. The facilities it lists and the phone numbers were all accurate. The maps were well detailed EXCEPT for topographical information. Also, the hiking between Rowardennan and Inverarnan was a wee bit more difficult than the book described. (To be fair, we carried 40lb packs so everything seemed harder LOL). If you are planning on walking the way, seriously consider using a travel agency. We did not use a travel agency and I believe it cost much more as the B & Bs and campsites work deals with the agencies. Also, the bits from Drymen to Balmaha and then from Rowardennan to Inverarnan are pretty difficult (as is the bit from King’s House Hotel to Kinlochleven). Be ye warned and plan your stopping and starting points carefully. Also, it is always rainy and cold in Scotland so bring gortex- lots and lots of gortex. (Especially your boots).
