Customer Reviews

Im happy following this series. There aren't too many I stick with but this one has a nice feel to it. There is a balance evolving nicely between the agents personal life and her work life. It seems that the drama overlaps into both and Paige has her issues with some of her co workers and her partner at home but the whole thing is a nice relaxed read. By that I mean you can put it down for a while like I did and then come back to pick up a new book and slip right back into it. I put that down to a combination of the writers style, the quality of the story, and the scaled down episodic format of the story. Each installment is bringing us closer to wherever Paige is headed in her life and I am happy to hang around to see where that takes her.

Simple to read, but very intense. You feel like you could be in the story, even if you've never experienced any of the characters. Think I would be Paige.

I am enjoying this series great story subject.
