I read the book when I was on a cruise and kept me entertained.

Book was great story. Could easily see how this could be a true story in today's world. My only c/o is that one of the discs had a problem and one chapter while listening had a lot of skips present. Nothing visible to naked eye as to what problem might be. Remainder of discs all good and able to finish book.

as always with her books i can't seem to put them down. makes you feel you are right there with lots of adventures once finished i just can't wait for another one to come out by the outstanding auth

I've always loved her books, but this one was exceptional!!! Especially with all the b.s. going on in Washington. Great job

I gave this 5 stars because it held my interest completely. I do believe that there are people so psychotic, and I thank God that they seem to be few and far between, or maybe I have been very lucky not to know people like Tony.

This book was soon different than Danielle's usual books because you are caught up in the intrigue quickly in the book. I enjoyed the wait for the romance to begin between the reporter & her photographer it kept my attention .

Excellent book. Her writing draws you in and keeps you interested to the last word. Highly recommend all her books!

Dangerous Games was a good read, very much as I have come to expect with Danielle Steel books. I always enjoy the little bit of mystery in her stories. On to the next one!
