Bought this because my husband was going to be laid up for quite some time following a surgical procedure, so I figured that having some casual reading material might help keep his mind off of his long recovery time. There is no need for me to read it myself though, because I believe that he has now told me all of the useless information that I never knew about! He has enjoyed reading this book.....makes for good casual reading material that you can pick up & put down at any time.

The book is a good one, but came with a thick, black marker line along the bottom as if it had been bought at a discount shop. It also had some pages bent at the corner. As it is a gift and I have no time to replace it I have to keep it, but hate the fact that my friend will think I bought it cheaply.

This is the best gift for someone when you don't know what else to give them! I gave this to our friend who know just enough about everything and now he comes around quoting a bunch of useless information. He loved it as well.

Hmmm. If you're here, you're probably hooked on this stuff already. I took a shot at expanding my mind. Now, I guess I will go the old fashioned Timothy Leary way.waaay over my simple head.

This book (series) has become a family (and guest) favorite. We are on our 3rd in the series and keep the books available in our bathrooms. Makes the 'library' a fun learning experience for long or short visits. Buy all of them, great fun and the perfect bathroom companion. Lots of "I did not know that" and "REALLY? Astound your friends and be the next Cliff from "CHEERS", or maybe not...

Comforting, relaxing reading

I bought this as a gift and my uncle really enjoyed it.
