My Opinion

Synopsis

Get a glimpse inside the chaotic world of hip-hop with Mac Mall's eye-opening new memoir, My Opinion. Raised on the unforgiving streets of California's notorious Crestside neighborhood, Mac Mall had a choice to make: either grab a MAC-10 or grab a microphone. The latter won out, and, having fallen in love with hip-hop at a young age, Mac Mall achieved his dream music stardom even earlier than he could have imagined. Taken under the wings of Bay Area legends Mac Dre and Khayree, Mac Mall released the best-selling album Illegal Business? at the age of sixteen—and never looked back. Over the course of his career at the independent rap label Young Black Brother and beyond, Mac Mall managed to make his mark on the world of hip-hop while coming face-to-face with life and death itself. Pulling no punches, My Opinion offers a raw look at a life spent navigating the thrilling yet treacherous waters of groupies, drugs, and the ever-evolving music industry. This inspiring memoir ultimately shares one man's story of chasing a dream, catching it, and trying to hold on through the wild adventures it leads him on.

Mac Mall was born in Vallejo, California. Inspired at a young age by rap artists such as The Mac and Mac Dre, Mall pursued a hip-hop career and made the wildly successful album Illegal Business? at the age of sixteen. His second video, "Ghetto Theme," was even directed by the late Tupac Shakur. With over twenty years in the music business, Mall has toured all over the world, released ten solo albums and two movies, and worked on hundreds of other projects.

Got to love this Bay area legend.

I bought this book for my son and he read it in one night and loved it.

Excellent read!

Kind of short in length. But a decent read.
