DO NOT GET! I only received volume B of this text and was told there was nothing they could do.

I was to get volume A and B and only received volume B. Plus the product came a day late. NOT HAPPY at all since this is required for my course.

It clearly says that it comes with both Volume A and B; however, I only received volume B. Subsequently, I am behind on a lot of course work because I had to buy Volume A separately an entire week after my classes started.

I only received volume A, unlike description and picture. Very dissatisfied as I needed both volumes.

Received only one book in this package.

The stories that were legible were great. All 5 of them. For the rest of the works I was not able to enjoy them due to the poor physical condition of the books that was misleadingly described as in "good condition." Very disappointed these books contain masterpieces.

Yep, I'm a geezer student. Norton does a great job of providing a solid survey text. Some of the introductory material is biased, but if you can read past that, source some original material and university sites, you'll come away with a better, different, viewpoint than you had if you'd studied the same subject in the 80s or 90s.

This was the text required for my class. I love the reading but the pages are paper thin and can tear easily. The text is small and sometimes difficult to read. If you have any vision impairment, I wish it was a little bit bigger especially since I was using it for class and it certainly contains some classic material that I would like to read again later.
