This was the favorite book of my oldest son, now in his 30's. It is now a favorite book of my grandson. Illustrations are adorable. My grandson asks me every time we read it on the Kindle to expand the pictures to look at them more closely. The story has a definitive beginning, middle and end - something that seems to be missing in so many simple children's books. Dog wakes up in the middle of the night thinking it's daytime, but where is the sun?! He wakes up other farm animals to help him find the sun. In all the commotion, Farmer's baby is awoken ... just as the sun rises. The animals are convinced Farmer's baby woke up the sun and lavish her with appreciative affection."Read it again, Nana!"

Excellent book for your kid. It has got good absorbing images especially if your kid loves animals. The language is simple and easily readable.

My little grandson really enjoyed this little story.I find this series to be great for the new little readers.

my munchkin loves the story and practicing his reading

We loved this book

Perfect leveled reader

I love this little book and my great grands like me reading it to them.

Very cute story. Great for kindergarten kids. My daughter loved it. Highly recommend this book.
