Customer Reviews

I think we've read the Batman one enough times for me to have it memorized! Great way to get several of these readers at once

A great superheroes book enjoyed by both my grandsons. Big font. colorful pages. Good story endings about the good guys defeating the bad guys of course.

We love the step into reading books!

While the content and stories are good the binding is horrible. Pages got torn from binfing within days and my son has never ripped a book before. I got tired of taping the pages which were constantly falling off

I gave this to my grandson for his 5th birthday and he loves it. Sat down and sounded out all the words. Parents say he reads it frequently. Like to get him books he enjoys to hear and to be able to read on his own and this one fit the bill.

My 3 1/2 year old has a recent love for super heroes so we've checked out most of these stories at the library before. They are short, not very violent, and perfect for a quick bedtime story. They are even short enough to read a couple stories before bed. Great to have multiple super hero stories in one place.

I bought this as a gift for a four year old who is just beginning to read. The stories are interesting and increase in difficulty to encourage him to grow as a reader. I love that all the books are bound in one volume that is more substantial than the shorter books on their own.
