Synopsis

Egypt 1:750,000 / 1:2,500,000 & Cairo Travel Map NELLES, 2011 edition Double-sided map combining coverage of the whole country at 1:2,500,000 with more detailed mapping of the River Nile Valley at 1:750,000 plus several insets with more detailed maps: Aswan area 1:45,000; archaeological sites of Giza Pyramid Complex 1:16,000, Luxor 1:57,500 and Valley of the Kings 1:5,900; seaside resorts of Hurghada 1:133,300 and Sharm el-Sheikh 1:190,000; and street plans of Cairo 1:17,500 and central Alexandria 1:43.000. This new 2011 edition has been considerably improved with several added inset maps of areas important to visitors and also the sheet size has been enlarged. On one side is a general map of Egypt at 1:2,500,000, with relief shading and spot heights to indicate the topography, showing the road network and highlighting main places of interest, including all the country's great archaeological sites. An indexed street plan of Cairo at 1:17,500 covers all the main sights within the city itself and shows the transport network, places of interest, selected hotels and restaurants, etc. On the reverse, the Nile Valley from Aswan to the Delta is shown in greater detail, presented in three sections at 1:750,000. Road presentation includes secondary and selected minor roads, and intermediate driving distances are marked on main routes. Railways and local airports are also shown and symbols mark locations of archaeological sites and other places of interest. Place names are in Latin alphabet and in modern spelling, with traditional alternatives provided where necessary (Al-Uqsar - Luxor). Latitude and longitude lines are at 1° intervals. Sheet size: 102 x 50 cm / 40 x 19.5 in, hard cover. Multilingual map legend includes English. High quality German cartography.
