Customer Reviews

This is a wonderful book on the Santa Fe Trail!

Condition a bit better than described.

In my previous review for Marc Simmons' Following the Santa Fe Trail, published in 1986, I wondered what other guides have since come out. As it turns out, there are several. A few years later in 1989, Gregory Franzwa, a trail scholar in a similar fashion as Simmons, published this comprehensive version. The Santa Fe Trail Revisited has everything you need to know and more to get the most out of a modern day excursion down the Old Santa Fe Trail. This book is nearing three decades old so some of the information will be dated, but a smart traveler should know which parts to update. (Here I'm thinking about the sections of the trail still residing on privately owned land.)
