Upper Room Worshipbook, Accompaniment & Worship Leader Edition

Synopsis

The Upper Room Worshipbook: Accompanist & Worship Leader Edition (AWL) includes all of the wonderful elements of the revised participant's or singer's edition, along with alternate prayers and liturgical texts and tools for the worship planner. "'Come, let us sing to the Lord,' the psalmist exhorts. Let us pray this way together and be formed into the people God intends for us to be," writes one of the contributors to this comprehensive resource. Full keyboard accompaniments for all selections are provided as well as alternate keyboard and guitar chording. Included also are solo, cantor and instrumental options to enhance the "'people's parts.'" The second and third sections of the AWL features interpretative essays to aid the worship leader in understanding the content and its uses. Finally, the indexes offer essential resources needed by pastors, musicians, worship leaders and design teams. As one reviewer has said, "'Most songbooks include a few pages of topical index that help the user relate a song to a theme, topic, or season. This greatly expanded index of 43 (!) pages is probably worth the cost of the book alone.'" Special Easy-to-Use Binding: 3-hole drilled text pages (8 1/2" x 11") within a blue vinyl 3-ring binder (11 5/16" x 11 1/2" x 3")

Elise S. Eslinger is Director of the Institute for Applied Theology at United Theological Seminary, Dayton, OH.

A wonderful resource for creative worship, with all kinds of contemporary sounds and texts for Christian worship in the contemplative and liturgical traditions of Eucharist and daily offices of prayer.

I met Elise Eslinger at a recent convocation and am delighted to have her wonderful worship resource at my disposal now.

A good resource book if you do worship planning.

I've enjoyed using this book for both corporate worship leadership and personal devotional times. The arrangements of the worship songs are well done and very singable. It is well organized and user friendly.
