Customer Reviews

Other than all the stories being pretty much the same style.....the spelling and pronunciation is terrible. So many words left out, spelled wrong, etc. If these are done by scanning, they should at least be proofread. Not very enjoyable to read like that.

This is a great box set. From the 1st story to the last. I never lost interest. I strongly recommend this set to all.

However, the entire collection needs serious editing, too many typos and mixed-up sentences. Also two of the stories were repeated.

Love from a man's perspective is really quite interesting. While some of the stories were similar others were unique. I like how both the male and female characters were well developed and always with that happy ending we look for.

I found these books to be fascinating. They speak to a time when love was true and pure. When people were honest, real, caring and concerned for each other. I would recommend this collection to people who are looking for hope in love.

lots of different twists to the mail order bride books. I always like the happy endings.

Most of the stories began well, but ended far too abruptly. Also, many, many grammatical and spelling mistakes were in the books. They need to be edited.

I loved all 45 books. They are good clean romances, they have a few missed spelled words. If you read a lot you will be able to get the words they missed spelled. The books are worth your time. I recommend these books to everyone who loves clean romances. No sex.
