PreS-Gr 1Ã¢â ¬â •Shaw's eighth installment in her beloved "Sheep" series (Houghton Harcourt) is as lifting and soothing as the first. Rhyming text softly rocks readers alongside a patient border collie who puts five sheep to sleep by fulfilling their bedtime wishes. These requests range from a hug, a drink, a cozy quilt, and a teddy bear. The story is illustrated with Apple's signature colored-pencil drawings; they are sweet and soft, just right for bedtime. VERDICT This book will be a favorite for any reluctant sleepyheads.Ã¢â ¬â •Melisa Bailey, Harford County Library System, MD --This text refers to the Hardcover edition.

"The story is illustrated with AppleÃ¢â ¬â„¢s signature colored-pencil drawings; they are sweet and soft, just right for bedtime...This book will be a favorite for any reluctant sleepyheads"Ã¢â ¬â •School Library Journal "The combination of formula and subject is such a natural it's a wonder Shaw and Apple waited this long to put them together. A beguiling bedtime book and a nice choice for just before nap time."Ã¢â ¬â •Kirkus "The endearing colored-pencil illustrations portray the animals' emotions with clarity and wit...this amiable picture book is just right for bedtime reading."Ã¢â ¬â •Booklist "Apple's soft colored-pencil illustrations set a peaceful pastoral scene, while the soothing assonant sounds of the text ask young listeners to, well, begin, counting their own sheep."Ã¢â ¬â •Horn Book Magazine

I love the Sheep series. The text in Sheep Go to Sleep is charming and the pictures are fun. Young children enjoy the humor in these stories. As a pediatric speech-language pathologist, I use every one of the books in this series with my clients who are working on the /sh/ sound. There are many opportunities to practice saying the sound correctly at the word and/or sentence level and my clients love to retell the stories to their parents. You can’t do any better than that.

Great rhyming bedtime (or anytime!) story. More counting than the other Sheep books, but still my second favorite after Sheep in a Jeep.

Sweet little book about sheep who can’t sleep.... Perfect little rhyming scheme! My baby loves it. Great quality board book.

Our daughter is a first grade teacher and her class has thoroughly enjoyed this cute book by Nancy E. Shaw.

We love all of the sheep books and this is no exception. Adorable story about a collie who helps take care of the sheep when they need to go to sleep.

My little guy (10 months corrected) absolutely loves this book. He won’t go to sleep until he’s heard it at least twice! It’s such a sweet story, so I never tire of repeating it.

Silly sounds, great rhymes, beautiful drawings/pictures ... Cute story linesAlways a fave!! Have to read this story over & over b/c it is FAVORITE of little kidlettes

Love the rhythms and silly story line of all the sheep books. So I’ll only review one although I have bought several. Granddaughter loves all of them I even laugh.
