Customer Reviews

Another great formula novel by a very good western author. OK, so now I know in a C J Petit Novel, a really good guy is going to fall in love with a down trodden maiden, so, on and so forth. However, the way he weaves the plot line around a somewhat predictable boy / girl deal is outstanding, I really can not put it down, I dread the day when I find no CJ Petit Books available for me.

The hero, Kyle, is almost too good to be true. He is super intelligent, respects women, and always makes sure the good triumphs over evil. The setting is after the Civil War. There were a lot of bad people who went west for many reasons. It is nice to read about someone who values women and children,

As usual this is another of Mr Petit's good and entertaining stories with history included to make it even better. Thanks for a great read. Your characters are the kind that you admire and hate. Love your books.

Mr. PETIT continues to amaze me with his storytelling. His ability to bring history to life in the 1860's in the west between Natives and white western expansion is spellbinding.

I will recommend this book to my friends. I will also look for more books by C. J. Petit. A very good author

This is a book that keeps your attention from page one. The title is deceiving. It is indeed a good western

The author did a great job of drawing believable and interesting characters. I did not like the character named Falstaff and loved how he got his comeuppance. The quick pace and turns in the plot kept things moving. I also learned a lot about the history of that time. Kudos to CJ

Nice read
