Summer And Mason (Middle School)

Synopsis

EXCERPT: Mom finally just came out with her horrible news: "This is your new step-brother, Mason." When my eyes laid on him I about choked out a rooster. Because this “Mason“--my new “step-brother“--was the horrible new boy I ran into at school today. Yeah. I literally ran into him. He had grabbed my shoulders to steady me once I plowed into his (firm) chest. Then--then I peeked up (well, okay, STARED) into the dreamiest eyes I had ever seen--his. This boy“s standing in front of me. This boy that wasn“t my awesome, wonderful boyfriend, Lincoln--who was the only boy that should make my heart pound all pound-y like it was. But no. It was doing it for my new “step-brother.“ Awesome. (Not!!!) I looked away from Mason“s amused (gorgeous) grin, feeling like I needed to dunk my head into a bucket of ice water. And get a shrink for my spastic heart. Oh no. This was going to be bad! Very, very bad!!!

First off, I love the beginning. It gets to the "part" really quick unlike other books you usually have to read halfway and get only get a little romance. Also, I really like Summer's personality . In a lot of Melanie Marks books, the girl is shy and hesitant but Summer has a strong personality and always thinks of smart retorts towards Mason even though she is actually really shy. I would give the book a six star if the girl is more active. You see, Mason is always there for her, flirting with her, and all that stuff. I would love it if she gets a clue in the middle of the story and starts to interact with Mason more. She could even sort of flirt with Mason and make HIM blush or something like that. Because, like COME ON! Ok, he used to be your brother... but that doesn't matter cuz he's not anymore! Even if he is known as a "player", he looks at you differently than other girls. He treats you better, way better than others girls. And he only dates blondies. Come on...get a clue. Maybe it has something to do with you?? Over all though, great book!

This book was greatÃfÂçÃ â ÑÃ Âbut some of the things that were written in this book were almost exactly the same as Melanie's other book Matt and Nicole. It was like Melanie was running out of ideas or just wasn't being very creative. At one part in the book the main character, Summer was babysitting to little girls; like in Matt and Nicole, Summer was wearing one of Mason t-shirts so she could feel like he was there with her. And like in Matt and Nicole, Summer and the girls she was babysitting made a mess in Mason's room watching a movie and eating popcorn. What I'm trying to say is this book is greatÃfÂçÃ â ÑÃ Âbut it's a lot like Matt and Nicole. I am not trying to complain and other than that it was a good book. :)

There are actually 6 books in it!They are all good so its an awesome book!My favorite one was Summer and Mason (the first one)anyways i recomend this book to girls 9-12

I like the book but it ended so early. Out of a lot of pages only about 40% is book? I need more reading. You should make these books longer!

Cool it was cool I guess It was wierd at first because they are step bother and sister so yeah
