That was an awesome read! Bound Forever answered all my questions from the first book, and then some!! absolutely love Caden! He's a damn hero! Such a tragic twist of fate that brought him together with Kitten... I'm so happy they got the ending that they both truly deserved. The way Hanna Peach told the story through both the H and h's perspective was very well done. Going back into the past and watching how the characters dealt with their demons because of these things was awe inspiring. The romance scenes were waaaay better in this than the first book, as Cayden starts letting his guard down. Just smokin'. Excellently done!

Enjoyed the writing style, the intense crime saga and how the lives were really never separated through the years, even though the characters and the reader doesn't know until the last minute. Overall great storyline. Only negative aspect, some chapters should have not been separated. A few should have been combined for the right flow of the action. Still 5 stars!

I love the two books. I just couldn't put them down. I wish there was more. I wanted more I love crazy love.

Very good writing with twists along the way. The story is very good and pushes you to keep reading. Didn't want it to end.

After reading the first book, I couldn't wait to read this one! I liked this one even better than the first. It definitely kept me guessing. Every time I thought I had something figured out it threw a curve ball at me. I loved that because I hate books that are so easy to predict. They become boring. This one is anything but! Definitely a must have if you want a sexy book that has an actual storyline, and an awesome one at that!

This two book series is dark and is about damaged people. The story is very good and the intrigue is good. I liked the characters even with their faults. Very good development. It is not for everyone. It is really dark and Jacob who is the common denominator for the two main characters is a very twisted sick individual. It's a good read -- not light at all.

It does have some very rough parts just like life. Being a survivor myself. I could not stop reading. It took me about three days to read both. If you are getting the first book, go ahead and buy second one. I have read A LOT, this story ranks right at the top.

Enjoyed book 2, it has all the correct ingredients to keep you reading till the end. Characters developed further as did the story line. At least the series ends on a high!!
