Customer Reviews

Found book very enjoyable and very readable. If you already have the historical background for the Peninsular Campaign then you will find this memoir illuminating. The memoir gives the reader a look at the day to day cares and concerns of a participant in the "great adventure" and a look into the mindset of the British Officer Class during this period in history. Several similar memoirs are available written by officers of the Rifle Brigade, and all I have read so far have been well worth reading.
