Fifty Bicycles That Changed The World (Design Museum Fifty)

Synopsis

The bicycle is the world's most popular form of transport. From the Penny-Farthing, the Dandy-Horse and the Velocipede the design of the bicycle has evolved over the decades both in terms of style and technology. From high-performance cycles to practical run-arounds, conceptual bikes to commercial models, here are the 50 most important, pivotal bicycles from around the world.

Customer Reviews

Alex Newson is a curator at the Design Museum in London - and a passionate cyclist. He has worked with a number of cycling's most celebrated names and manufacturers including Chris Boardman, Bob Haro, Graeme Obree, Team Sky, Pinarello, Colnago, Trek, Santa Cruz and Felt.

Very good product at a good price , the seller was fast shipping and the product is like the description says .

great. Thank you

Got this for my husband who loves bicycles. There are some bikes he had not seen! It's a compact book with nice pictures and a brief overview/history with each bike.

Great history of cycling. Lots of info for the price. Great starting points for googling.

Bought this as a gift and it was well received. Perfect for cyclists!!

A mandatory book for bike lovers. Excellent deal.

Good value and quick delivery...

Great book, good to see the 'longbike' recumbent is in there too. View tips and guidelines | 8 more words required
