Customer Reviews

DeLorme has been directly responsible for many of the major technological advances made in the mapping industry over the past 30 years.

Living in Northern Wisconsin, I have the Wisconsin and Michigan gazetteer, as well as the Montana and now the Wyoming editions. I am an outdoor enthusiast who likes to take the road less travelled...and get back to the main roads. These gazetteers are invaluable for the traveller who likes to have a good idea of what to expect when they take those roads. You can also program your GPS devices using these maps.

The DeLorme maps are the basis for all of my trip-planning!

It's hard to say much of anything negative about this product. If you are going off the beaten path in ANY state, you need to buy the Gazetteer for it. In states like Wyoming it can be the difference between getting gas into your car and not.

DeLorme map books are great for trip planning and you can keep them in the vehicle for the states you'll visit. I bought this from one of the Goodwill centers. Goodwill usually ships very quickly but they ship books by the cheapest means so they will be no tracking. It arrives when it gets there. I've ordered literally dozens of books from the different Goodwill stores and always been satisfied.

Great & useful book

Perfect for all our needs

I have worn out DeLorme Atlases of Missouri, Illinois and Colorado. I love to travel and a big part of my enjoyment is discovering what any area has to offer off the beaten path. This series of Atlases offers information and locations of historical, geological, recreational and scenic interest and much more than a folding state map could possibly cover. They are highly detailed, large scale (1 inch equals 3.2 miles) show contours, back roads, railroads (even abandoned right of ways), rivers, creeks, old cemeteries, mines, quarries, trails and other details that you would find only on USGS maps. I use these in conjunction with Google Earth and, if you have one of these with you being out of cell or wireless range doesn't matter.

nice details, even has markings you wouldn't find on google maps
