Without a doubt we are living in a time of great change. The next ten years are sure to be mind-blowing in their technological advancement and cultural decline. According to the 12 authors of I PREDICT! our generation is seeing a convergence of social, political, militaristic, and economic trends which the Bible foretold long ago. This book is comprised of 12 chapters written by twelve respected authors, each providing a summary of his or her unique perspective on how events and trends of our generation are precursors to the end of this age and the return of Christ. I should make clear this is not a book about dating the return of Christ or the rapture but rather an overview of events and social trends with an eye to increasing awareness of the day and age in which we live. After reading the book it is clear that not all of the authors agree on every point of Bible prophecy. Personally I enjoyed reading the different points of view that were offered. Each chapter gives the reader enough information to challenge them to run down the facts for themselves. To be sure with the differing opinions you will likely find something to disagree with in this book. I know I did. But for those willing to look past the disagreements you also be sure to find some great information which will really inspire you to dig deeper in the various subject covered. My two favorite chapters of the book were: Dr. Gordon McDonald's, The Age of Convergence and Sharon Gilbert's, The Hybrid Age Begins. If you read nothing else in this book Dr. McDonald's chapter was worth the price of the entire book. An exceptional rendering of current trends and how they relate to Bible prophecy. Really well written and insightful. * * * Now I make no claim to being a global expert on Bible prophecy, on the contrary I am just a layman who has a great love of subject, but there is another aspect of Bible prophecy which has the potential to change how we see many of the important prophecies of the Bible over the next ten years. That change I believe will come through a realignment of the Bible's prophetic record with a Biblically based reckoning of time. Today, most of the Bible's prophetic record is interpreted using a calendar that did not exist when the majority of the Bible's prophecies were given. Further today's "prophetic calendar" would have been unrecognizable to the Old Testament prophets, the apostles and even Yeshua Himself. Let me try to explain: When the prophecies of the book of Daniel were given, Israel used a lunar/solar calendar as defined in the Torah. Today, nearly 2500 years later, most of those prophecies are understood using a strictly lunar calendar of 30 day months. A calendar which many today claim is based upon a reckoning of time which existed long before the prophecies of Daniel were written. Confusing to be sure but that is the current consensus regarding Biblical time. These assumptions are further complicated by the historical fact that Yeshua's death and resurrection fulfilled the Biblical prophecies embedded in the festivals of Passover, Unleavened Bread and Firstfruits using a lunar/solar calendar as given to Israel at the Exodus, not a 30 day lunar calendar for which the Bible provides only very limited anecdotal evidence. Over the next ten years as we draw closer to the fulfillment of many of the unfulfilled prophecies in the book of Daniel and Revelation, I believe you will see a realignment of the Bible's prophetic record with a Biblical reckoning of time according to a lunar/solar calendar as defined in the Scripture. A calendar which I might add we have reasonable Biblical and historical evidence for since at least the Exodus of Israel from Egypt. The implications of this are just now being quietly discussed by leaders in the prophetic community. Expect to see this more openly discussed in the years to come. * * * In summary I believe anyone interested in Bible prophecy will find something worth further reflection and exploration in this book. Those who prefer to throw the baby out with the bath water will also probably find grounds to disregard many of the important facts of this book in light of their disagreements. Personally, in my own studies I've learned as much from those I disagree with as those I don't. Some good reading in this book but keep your Biblical filter turned on and do your Berean duty to see if "those things be so". Maranatha!

So much information in a condensed format. If you are new to end times study this is a great way to get a comprehensive overview of the multilayered onion of end time globalism that is unfolding in our generation. This should be bought in bulk and passed out to every church member to read and pass on. We must wake up!!

I loved the book, it was very interesting it included scriptures and endtimes predictions along with current geo political events and science+ technology. The authors which includes world renown Thomas Horn really let you know what is happening with our society how it came to be this way starting with the Bible and ending with transhumanism and the technology we are developing that we can't hope to control. Our lives depend on our learning about the subjects that this monumental book tells us. So please read Christine keen

It's an easy read which really draws the reader in. The information provided is very eye-opening. It is also fascinating when I consider the fact that I read 2 years after it was published, and still find that the information seems to be playing out exactly as they wrote.

interesting stuff. Tom Horn is a great writer and helping me understand what is going on in the world today.

Great collection of articles by good authors. Very informative.

As everything prophetic is coming to a head, a must read. Only one author that I missed was Missler, but well worth reading.

I love Tom Horn books
