Customer Reviews

I bought this book for a 15 year old boy. It's too simple. I had wanted something that talked more about all the reasons to wait for marriage for sexual activity and what God's views are on it. It is a very small book and focuses too much on what to look for in friends and someone to date. There is a small section that talks about keeping away from lustful thoughts and it does say to keep sex in the marriage bed but there is no elaboration. I'll keep looking for another book.....

I let a copy of this book on my guest restrooms for the teens in my family to review. I was glad to see that both copies vanished! Of course no one knew where they went but my questions followed.

Great information!

I am trying to wade through these subjects with my 12 year old( yeah 12!) and am hoping to use this to set a firm foundation as to why he isn't allowed to date and on the whole sex topic in general. He has read the How to get along with your parent s black book and liked it-
