Synopsis

Travis was not absolutely sure what his Sunday school teacher meant by 'fruits of the spirit,' but by his parents' reaction, he knew it must be important. While Travis was at baseball practice, he noticed that a new boy named Wesley seemed to be struggling. Travis remembered what his father told him about baseball: You're on a team, and you need to help and support one another. With that thought in mind, will Travis hit a home run by reaching out to Wesley? Found out in Baseball.

Customer Reviews

The font on this book was teeny, tiny and my Kindle would not adjust it. For $7 it was not worth it. It was a nice message of befriending the new kid on the team, but nothing too unique or interesting. If you are very religious, it refers to Sunday School a few times and the kid is wearing a Christian symbol on his clothing in many of the pages.

I thought the story was decent. Not particularly great, but I've read worse. If you're looking for a children's book about baseball with a Christian theme to it, this would make a valuable addition for your library.
