Customer Reviews

Wayne E. Wright is a professor and the Barbara I. Cook Chair of Literacy and Language in the Department of Curriculum and Instruction in the College of Education at Purdue University. He provides training for future and current educators in the areas of English as a second language teaching methods, literacy, assessment, technology, and research. Wright has extensive experience as a researcher and practitioner in schools in the United States and internationally.

Excellent, detailed resource.

It is dense material but important to learn about.

Dr. Wright gives a great deal of information that is needed for ELL teachers and support staff.
