Revivement: Having A Life After Making A Living

Synopsis

You're not over the hill. You're really on top of it. And, you probably have another 20 to 50 years to live. Are you prepared to embrace the rest of your life? "I've had the good fortune to know Gloria for more than 40 years and throughout that time I've witnessed her ability to reinvent herself and to help others do the same thing. Her energy and enthusiasm are inspiring, and in fact contagious. I've previewed this latest book and find it filled with inspiring stories, exercises, and good advice. Gloria, as always, remains a vital resource in a changing time." Robert Stein, President/CEO, American Society on Aging "This is a must read for anyone retiring or already retired. Gloria takes you on a journey to the innovations being discovered that will impact your longevity. She gives you the elements of a satisfying and fulfilling life. And, she provides exercises to help you think through how you want the rest of your life to be." Ken Dychtwald, Ph.D., CEO of Age Wave and author of A New Purpose: Redefining Money, Family, Work, Retirement, and Success "Planning for retirement is usually focused on saving enough money to retire. Rarely is a careful assessment made to maximize what this exciting stage of life can bring in terms of happiness, love and mental and physical fulfillment. Rather than just hoping it will all work out, Gloria provides an easy-to-follow roadmap to making "revivement" a time for achieving unmet dreams and making new ones come true. It's a gift to us all." Bruce W. Burtch, author of Win-Win for the Greater Good and recognized internationally as a pioneer in the field of cross-sector partnerships and cause marketing
