Customer Reviews

I live in California and my brother-in-law and his family live outside Tampa. Last time we visited them, we really had a tough time deciding where to eat since he does not get into Tampa very often.

This next trip will be much better now that I have the inside scoop on finding the best of the best food spots and fun attractions. This book is packed with great info that I'm going to use to impress my brother-in-law's family. The book offers a good balance between providing enough information on each destination but keeps it brief and to the point. If you're going to Tampa, get this book, you won't regret it!

I live in the Tampa Bay area and found this guide of "fun" things to do in Tampa to be less than innovative. This was no more than a glorified copy of a tourist pamphlet. Free is a fair price to pay, otherwise; leave it on the shelf. You can come to Tampa and have more fun just winging it than by following the advice given in this so called travel guide.
