Customer Reviews

Gr 2–4 •What’s eating EllRay Jakes? No, it’s not the fact that he’s the smallest kid in his third-grade class; though he’s likable, EllRay’s bummed that he doesn’t have more friends. He sets his sights on becoming a social butterfly, but it’s not long before his best-laid plans go awry. Sprinkled here and there with cheery spot images and EllRay’s trademark lists, this is a simple but charming tale, full of realistic dialogue and marked by the author’s genuine understanding of the elementary school set. --This text refers to the Hardcover edition.

Nice

My 7 year old son loved the book. It is hard to find books he likes but this one he could actually relate to. I am looking forward to buying more Ellray Jakes books in the future.

My nephew haven't put it down since he received it in the mail!
