Customer Reviews

Life is one big mystery. One never knows what is around the corner in life. All the more reason to trust God with our life.

The mysteries and plots were great. I would have given it a 5 star but there was a lot of Amish mistakes. Some that I remember was a widowed Amish man still wore his wedding ring. I don't think they give rings. One was the Amish girl couldn't wait for her date with a handsome young man with a soft beard. Hello, that means he was married. There were more cases but the plots were very good.

I found these stories to be a bit young for me (I am 56). While interesting enough, I felt that several of the stories did not represent the Amish true to their ways and beliefs. There were many grammatical errors as well as punctuation errors and even wording that did not make sense to me . This group of stories was a quick read and I feel that being only .99ÃƒÂ¢ Â¢ I could overlook the many errors. Perhaps this is common for e-books?
